First Community Credit Union Acquires Former Evergreen State Bank Building

Beloit, WI - First Community Credit Union President, Jack Gill, announced the credit union has purchased the former Evergreen State Bank (ESB) building located at 2701 North Pontiac Drive in Janesville. The 6,000 square foot office features an ATM and three driveup lanes. Gill stated, “we are excited about increasing our presence in the Janesville market. We have completed two mergers in Janesville in the last three years and look forward to continuing serving the community in this beautiful facility.”

FCCU’s existing office located at 21 South Jackson Street and the Rock County Employees Credit Union office will be consolidated into the new North Pontiac Drive office. Gill stated, “we are hoping to have North Pontiac Drive office open for business by mid-October with a grand opening in early November.” The telephone number for the Janesville office will remain 758-4530.

First Community Credit Union locations include the main office located in Beloit and branch offices in Janesville, Machesney Park and Monroe. First Community Credit Union is a Bauer Financial five star superior safety rated credit union for more than twelve consecutive years. The combined assets of the credit union will be over $75 million.

First Community Credit Union started in 1933 with 25 employees of the Fairbanks Morse Corporation in Beloit, Wisconsin. These employees contributed a total of $2,000 to start the original credit union. This money was then lent out to other employees who needed a loan. This is the origin of most modern day credit unions. Today the credit union offers four full service offices with locations in Janesville, Machesney Park, Monroe and the main office in Beloit and has more than 14,000 members and $75 million in assets. Membership in First Community Credit Union is open to anyone who lives or works in Winnebago, Boone, and Stephenson counties in Illinois and Rock, Green, Dane, and Walworth counties in Wisconsin.
